Suggested Wear and Preparation for Daytime Walks:

You should have a comfortable daypack. Shoulder sling bags and school back packs are unsuitable. You will need to comfortably carry your day pack all day. Food to own requirements. Small first aid kit and personal items. Carry 3 to 4Ltrs water. There is no water en-route. Be conscious of weather, your clothing choice should reflect this. Dwellingup can get very cold and wet. A raincoat should always be carried. Comfortable, covered walking shoes. Light weight and comfortable walking shorts and shirt. Remember in winter when you break you can get cool, so often a light jumper can keep you warm. There is excellent information available at <https://www.bibbulmuntrack.org.au/> from the Trip Planner drop down menu.

Safety Plan:

Whilst the Bibbulmun Track is marked it is not impossible to get lost. You will get footprints of mobile reception depending on service provider. Your map and walk notes are quite detailed, and frequent referral to map and track notes should enable a pleasant and safe walk. Dwellingup Adventures is not an emergency response organisation. Should you have a life-threatening emergency contact 000 or 112 if you do not have reception. Dwellingup Adventures may be able to assist for minor injuries that impede your walking.
